

Flower

Habitat Tracker©

Plant Variety Profile

Black-eyed Susan, Goldsturm

(Compositae, Rudbeckia hirta)

Common Name: Black-eyed Susan		Variety is Native?: <input checked="" type="radio"/> Yes <input type="radio"/> No
Variety:	Goldsturm	Plant Group:	Flower
Color:	Yellow	Plant Type:	Perennial, Hard
Description:	This plant is native to the NE USA. A favorite with butterflies and birds alike.
Growth Info:		USDA Growth Zone From: 3 To Zone: 10
Light:	Full to Part Shade	Planting Time:	Spring
Moisture:	Average Moisture	Bloom Season:	Summer
Height:	3 feet	Begin Bloom:	June
Spacing:	12 to 30 inches	End Bloom:	September
Soil:	Average, well drained	pH:	6.5 to 8
Hardiness:	Drought Tolerant	Fertilizer:	Water Soluble
Propagation Info:
Primary Propagation:	Rhizomes	Planting Depth:	One-eighth to one-quart
Secondary Propagation:	Division	Seed Spacing:	12 to 18 inches
Seeds Need Light:		Row Spacing:	12 to 18 inches
Method of Pollination:	Insects	Days to Germinate:	7 to 21 Days
Soil Temp:	70 to 85	Days to Bloom:	45 to 60 Days
These plants will reseed.			